Northumbria is a research-rich, business-focused, professional university with a global reputation for academic excellence. The university is listed at 351-400 in the Times Higher Education 2020 rankings. In recent years, Northumbria University has established itself as a top university in League Table Rankings which places the varsity at 61st and 48th in The Times and The Guardian respectively.

The School of Design of Northumbria University was ranked 9th in the UK for Design and Crafts according to the Guardian University Guide 2018. The university also has produced a number of famous alumni Sir Jonathan Ive (former Senior VP Apple), Rob Law MBE (Founder, Trunki), Nicola Morgan (Designer, Lanvin, Paris) and Tim Brown (Chief Executive, IDEO).

About MMU

Established in July 1996, MMU is the first private university in Malaysia. As an industry trendsetter university with industry-ready programmes and entrepreneurial values, MMU adheres to the strictest requirements for academic excellence. With three campuses in Cyberjaya, Melaka and Johor, MMU is one of leading universities in Malaysia which focuses on cutting edge technology and world class education in producing professional knowledge workers with an entrepreneurial, research centric and innovative mindset under the domain of engineering, IT, creative multimedia and business studies.

Articulation Pathway:

Second Year of B.mm. (Hons.) Advertising Design and B.mm (Hons.) Media Arts	▶	Entry to Final Year (Level 6) of B.A. (Hons) Interaction Design at Northumbria University

Study Fees:

GBP 15,500/ year

Entry Requirements:

- Successful completion of Beta (Year 1) and Gamma (Year 2) of Bmm (Hons) Media Arts/ Bmm (Hons) Advertising Design
- IELTS overall score of 6.5 with a minimum component score of 5.5
- Admission is also subject to:
  - Acceptance through Northumbria application process
  - Payment of fees
  - Students obtaining a visa for entry to the UK

For enquiries, please contact:
Dr. Lim Kok Yoong at kylim@mmu.edu.my